

REMARKS

Claims 1-18, 20, 22, and 24 are all the claims presently pending in the application. Claims 19, 21, 23, 25 are canceled for purpose of incorporation into the independent claims, as indicated to be allowable subject matter by the Decision on Appeal dated June 8, 2007. Claims 3, 4, 7, 8, 11, and 12 were previously indicated by the Examiner in her Examiner's Answer as allowable.

In the Decision on Appeal decided June 8, 2007, the Board reversed the Examiner's rejection of record for claims 1, 5, 9, 13, 15, and 17-25, as well as the rejection for claims 2, 6, 10, 14, and 16, and entered a new ground for rejection of claims 1, 5, 9, 13, 15, 18, and 20-22 for anticipation by the e-book description in Call. Although Appellants pointed out the technical flaw in this new rejection, the Board did not seem to consider this technical distinction as significant and maintained their rejection of the independent claims.

However, Appellants believe that the Board's Decision has a typographical error by including independent claim 15 in the newly-rejected claims, since this independent claim already incorporates the second uninterrupted listing which the Board clearly stated as allowable subject matter, and the Examiner is respectfully requested to either confirm this typographical error or to make by Examiner's Amendment the appropriate correction upon checking with the Board. It is also noted that the amendments above correct the typographical errors for dependency, for which the Examiner refused entry in the Amendment under 37 CFR §1.116, submitted on August 29, 2005.

The Examiner is respectfully requested to pass the above application to issue at the earliest possible time.

Appellants' Post Appeal Amendment
S/N: 09/848,430

Should the Examiner find the application to be other than in condition for allowance, the Examiner is requested to contact the undersigned at the local telephone number listed below to discuss any other changes deemed necessary in a telephonic or personal interview.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any deficiency in fees or to credit any overpayment in fees to Assignee's Deposit Account No. 09-0441.

Respectfully Submitted,

Date: September 9, 2008
